Footnotes:

<sup>1/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

<sup>2/</sup> Elected officers whose salaries are less than $200 per month and judges are not required to file this semi-annual statement if no contributions were received or expenditures made during the period July 1 through December 31, 2006.

<sup>3/</sup> The recipient of a late in-kind contribution must file a late contribution report within 48 hours from the time the in-kind contribution is received.

<sup>4/</sup> A controlled committee of a candidate may not make independent expenditures to support or oppose other candidates.

Additional Notes:

- Primarily Formed Ballot Measure Committees: Prior to the semi-annual period in which the measure(s) supported or opposed is being voted on, committees must file quarterly campaign statements in addition to semi-annual statements. Following the election, quarterly statements may also be required. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
- Candidates: Contact the FPPC for revised reporting deadlines in the event of a runoff election. After an election, reporting requirements will depend on whether the candidate is successful and whether a campaign committee is maintained.

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Local jurisdictions may impose contribution limits and additional filing requirements.
- State committees making contributions or independent expenditures in connection with local elections should contact the FPPC for reporting requirements.

As of the date of this publication (1/07), the FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manual for local candidates (Manual 2) and ballot measure committees (Manual 3), and the 2006 Addendum to Manuals C and E, contain the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements.
